Summary

D&B geospatial data supports heightened awareness for emergency preparedness and economic recovery. D&B's critical infrastructure information provides important decision support information before, during and after crises by helping assess potential risk and impact as well as prepare for and track economic recovery in times of crisis. When used with GIS Visualization software, D&B data supports display of geospatial and GIS business information for impacted areas in times of crisis. For supplemental information on D&B solutions, including data cleansing, data quality, geospatial intelligence, emergency preparedness, homeland security, and law enforcement, and other government related uses visit <https://www.dnb.gov.com>

Description
