MDOT Centerlines Dataset

Public Access and Data Use Notice

Applicable Datasets: MDOT_CO_LRM and MDOT_CO_LRS

Public Availability

The Mississippi Department of Transportation (MDOT) Centerlines datasets (MDOT_CO_LRM and MDOT_CO_LRS) have no access or use limitations. These datasets are considered public-domain information and may be accessed, copied, distributed, and used, including for commercial purposes, as permitted by applicable law.

Data Use Conditions and Disclaimers

Persons and entities accessing, reproducing, integrating, distributing, or commercially using these datasets should observe the following conditions:

1. Source Attribution

MDOT requests that users acknowledge the source of the data using the following attribution:

"Source: Mississippi Department of Transportation via MARIS, https://www.mdot.ms.gov"

2. Data Provided As-Is

The datasets are provided "AS IS," without warranties of any kind, express or implied. Users are responsible for determining the accuracy, completeness, currency, and suitability of the data for their intended purposes.

3. Data Stewardship

MDOT and the Mississippi Automated Resource Information System (MARIS) retain their respective data stewardship responsibilities and any applicable intellectual property rights associated with the underlying Linear Referencing System (LRS) network.

4. No Government Endorsement

Use of these datasets does not constitute or imply endorsement, sponsorship, approval, or affiliation by MDOT, the Mississippi Transportation Commission, or the State of Mississippi. Users shall not represent their products, services, or activities as officially endorsed by or affiliated with these entities.

5. Restrictions on Official Logos

Use of these datasets does not authorize reproduction or use of MDOT or other official agency logos, seals, or identifying marks in connection with products, services, or publications.

General Notice

This notice describes the public availability of the identified datasets and MDOT's stated conditions and disclaimers concerning their use. Nothing in this notice is intended to restrict rights otherwise available under applicable law or to confer rights in government names, logos, seals, or other protected identifying marks.
